

Reconnection Center

(ESC @ Donald E. Long School)
Reengaging With The Future

Purpose

The Reconnection Center's sole purpose is to reengage disconnected youth with educational opportunities. Historically, if students are not reengaged immediately upon request, they are discouraged and they disengage for even longer periods of time. The Reconnection Center will provide students with academic assessments, credit evaluation, credit recovery, and identification of a "best-fit" education placement.

Student Profile

High school students who are:

- Seeking reengagement;
- Not currently enrolled in or attending a school/program;
- Unable to reengage in education due to program capacity limitations and/or insufficient time remaining in term/semester to complete coursework.

Length of Enrollment

The goal of the Reconnection Center is to reengage students in a permanent educational environment as soon as possible. Students will remain only until a "best-fit" is identified and available. Therefore, participation in the Reconnection Center will always be less than one semester.

Location and Hours

The Reconnection Center is located at:
Students will attend

Enrollment Process

- A student who desires to reengage, and a placement is unavailable with their home district can contact the Reconnection Center, Reconnection staff will meet with the student and develop an immediate enrollment plan with the student/family.
